The Great European Cough Remedy.

Important to the Consumptive and the Public generally! The celebrated

Universal Cough Mixture

IS a safe and effectual Remedy for Coughs of every description, whether of children or adults, of recent or long standing.

PREPARED ONLY BY

REV. WALTER CLARKE,

Sole Proprietor, Cornilshville, Maine.

Within the last twelve months thousands of bottles of the Universal Cough Mixture have been sold in the State of Maine alone, and everywhere it is acknowledged to excel in relieving and curing diseases of the Chest and Lungs, is gratefully acknowledged, and especially in cases of obstinate and long standing Coughs, it speedily allays the troublesome irritation in the throat which excites coughing, it promotes free and easy expectoration, and by removing the exciting cause of the cough, it frequently enables the sufferer to enjoy natural and refreshing sleep, who for weeks had been deprived of that blessing.

Sold in full bottles, 25 cents each; large bottles, each containing the quantity of four small ones, 75 cents each.

Extract of a letter from Daniel Adams, Esq. of Burlingham, Maine

FEBRUARY, 27th, 1853.

To Rev. Walter Clark. Dear Sir—The sample of Cough Mixture which I received of you last fall has proved a wonderful effect on my wife. She had been afflicted with a cough for two years—that bottle entirely removed it.

From Rev. Jesse Hunt, Lewiston, Maine.

BRO. CLARK—Every bottle of the Universal Cough Mixture which you left with me, I sold—and I have several applications for it. And as for myself, I have been perfectly satisfied with the medicine. One night, when a cough of long standing, attended with tightness of the chest and shortness of breath, so that he was laid aside from business, I gave him one large bottle, and before he had taken one third of it, was perfectly cured, and has had no cough since. He says it is the best medicine in the world, and cannot be recommended too highly.

JESSE HUNT.

From Mr. Fletcher Chick, agent for North Dennistown, Maine.

DEAR SIR—A number of most extraordinary cures have been effected by your Universal Cough Mixture in this place. Several who had coughs of a year's standing, and others who have been doctored six months without receiving any benefit, have been speedily cured by the Universal Cough Mixture.

From Mrs. Hubbard, Thorndike, Me.

To Rev. Walter Clark. Dear Sir—This certifies that I have used one bottle of your Universal Cough Mixture for a distressing cough and pain in the lungs. I had previously taken several kinds of medicine, and had been under the care of several physicians, without obtaining the least relief, happily your Universal Cough Mixture was recommended to me. I procured a bottle, and followed it to take according to direction on the label, by which in a few days I was entirely cured.

MARGARET P. HUBBARD.

GREAT

American and Foreign Office,

—FOR—

Securing Patents for Inventions.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH THE U. S. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON.

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State Street, opposite Kilby St., BOSTON.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The subscriber, (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office under the Act of 1837,) determined to present advantages in applying for patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements, whereby, on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others) will be remitted by him in case of failure, to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him, within thirty days after the rejection.

This agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered, them elsewhere. The testimonial below given proves it none so MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and no SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY. He would add, that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services of moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions, relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries, prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters relating to patents, and infringement of patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to secure a patent, and the usual great delay of patents here, obviated by inventors.

Copies of the claims of any patent furnished for one dollar.

Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, had business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity, who had more business before the Patent Office, and who were conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success than Mr. Eddy. I consider him well informed in the Patent Solicitor's office in the United States, and competent in securing inventors that they cannot be from most complete and trustworthy, and in the case of putting their applications in a form to secure an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the prosecution of business at this Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly versed in the law, and the rules and practice of the office, and is regarded as one of the most capable and practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

The New England Family Newspaper.

New Type and a New Press.

GREAT REDUCTION TO CLUBS!

PAYMENT INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

ENCOURAGED by the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed upon the JOURNAL, and in accordance with the spirit of the present age, the proprietor has decided to reduce the price of the Weekly Journal to Clubs, to the following rates:

|---|---|
| One copy, one year | $2.00 |
| Two copies, one year, to one address | 3.00 |
| Five copies, one year, to one address | 6.00 |
| Ten copies, one year, to one address | 10.00 |

PAYMENT TO BE MADE

INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

At the expiration of the time for which advance payment has been received, the paper will in all cases be stopped. By the adoption of this cash system, the employment of agents to collect subscriptions will be unnecessary, and their expenses will be saved to the subscriber.

THE BOSTON JOURNAL

has for many years consistently stood at the head of the newspaper press of New England. This position was attained not through any special effort on the part of its publishers to increase the circulation by agents or other usual means, but because it has proved to be such a paper as every liberal, intelligent man in the community might with propriety introduce into his family circle, to be read by his children, and from which he might draw for them both instruction and entertainment. With such a character it has earned the position it occupies, and the fact that its circulation is much larger than any other paper of its class in New England, is the clearest proof of the estimation in which it is held by the reading community.

It is our purpose now to greatly extend the circulation of the Weekly Journal. Preparatory to doing this, we have procured

New and Beautiful Type, with which to print it, and have also ordered one of

Hoe's Six Cylinder Fast Presses,

with which we can print FIFTEEN THOUSAND COPIES AN HOUR. This press will enable us to hold back our forms to a very late hour, important news, and yet to print, and have ready for season for the mails. We attach great importance to our printing department, believe we give our readers as handsome an paper as any in New England. The general character of the paper has proved so acceptable that we shall attempt no change. It is, and will be, emphatically

A Family Newspaper.

We intend that it shall be a complete record of the events of the age in which we live; that the attentive and careful reader of its pages shall be able to gather from them accurate and reliable information of every event of interest in politics, the arts and sciences, morals and religion, in this country and in foreign lands; and that they shall have this information at an earlier day than they can obtain it from any other source. To collate this intelligence from the thousand different sources where it is to be sought, to separate the wheat from the chaff, and to arrange and present it to the reader in a concise and intelligible form, is a work requiring not only a great expenditure of money, but also years of experience. We have the services of MR. EDWARD FOX FOR THE BUSINESS, to prepare the matter for the JOURNAL, and we shall spare no expense to enable them to do their work in the most thorough manner.

The COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT of the JOURNAL is second to that of no other weekly paper in New England. It embraces a carefully corrected PRICES CURRENT; a REVIEW OF THE MARKET for the week, stating the amount of business in the different articles of merchandise and the variation in prices; a separate article on the MONEY MARKET; original reports of the Brighton and Cambridge CATTLE MARKETS, the NEW YORK CATTLE MARKET; Spur News, &c. These reports are all prepared by men of large experience, thoroughly conversant with the department under their charge, and they are now relied upon by thousands of merchants and traders throughout the country, to guide them in their purchases and sales.

The LITERARY DEPARTMENT will embrace reviews and extracts from advance copies of the works issued by the leading publishing houses throughout the country. In this way the readers of the JOURNAL get the cream of the Literature of the country, and are enabled to select from the flood of new books issued such as they may desire for their centre tables or the shelves of their libraries.

In the MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENT we shall make provision for the entertainment and instruction of our young friends—the children. A good story—calculated to improve the mind and heart, while it furnishes entertainment for the passing hour, will be a prominent feature in this department.

THE BOSTON DAILY JOURNAL

(Morning or evening edition, as may be desired,) is sent to subscribers by mail, in any part of the United States, for SIX DOLLARS a year. By means of our Fast Presses we are able to keep the forms for the DAILY JOURNAL open several hours later than any other daily paper, and thus not unfrequently to publish important news from TWELVE to TWENTY-FOUR HOURS IN ADVANCE. The average circulation of the DAILY JOURNAL is more than double that of any subscription or two cent paper published in Boston.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY JOURNAL, containing all the reading matter of the Daily, is published TUESDAY and FRIDAY mornings, at FOUR DOLLARS a year.

BOSTON JOURNAL FOR CALIFORNIA

is printed on the 4th and 19th of each month, for sailing by the steamers of the 5th and 20th. It is made up with the greatest care for the information of New England men in California. Over TWELVE THOUSAND COPIES a month are now sent there, which is a much larger circulation than any other paper printed in the Atlantic States has. It is mailed at this office for SIX CENTS a copy. A person sending one dollar can have one each of sixteen numbers sent to any one they may desire.

Agents and Newsmen supplied with either Edition of the JOURNAL, on the most liberal terms.

Orders for either edition of the JOURNAL must be invariably accompanied by the cash, and should be addressed to

CHARLES G. ROGERS,
12 State Street, Boston.

Boston, December, 1855

To newspapers that may copy this prospectus, with an editorial reference directing attention to it, and send a copy marked to this office, we will send the Daily Journal for one year.

The Report upon Common Schools.—Pay of Teachers.

Among the facts and suggestions contained in the recent Annual Report of Hon. Mark H. Dunnell, Superintendent of the Common Schools of the State, is a reference to the decreasing number of teachers in the State, and the probable cause of the decrease—which is of considerable importance in its bearing upon the cause of education.

It appears that in 1852 the whole number of teachers in the public schools was 7,015, in 1855 it was 6696—showing a decrease of 319, and although the number of male teachers employed is but about half that of the females, the decrease of the former is nearly double that of the latter.

The Superintendent remarks that "the principal cause of the decrease of teachers is undoubtedly the low rate of wages at which they are compelled to labor." The average wages for male teachers has increased, to be sure, since 1852, from $17.33 per month to $20.67 and of female teachers from $1.54 per week to $1.90 but the increase has not been in proportion to the increase in the cost of living, and the pay, in a large proportion of the schools of the State has always been small in comparison with the rewards of labor in many departments of industry and business. More inviting fields of labor thus teaching present themselves, and the consequence is that teachers leave the business as fast as other openings are found.

The most injurious effect of the meagre compensation given in most of the country schools, and in some of the Schools in large towns and cities is not so much in a reduction of the number of teachers, as in the withdrawal of good and competent ones. The best teachers are generally the first to seek other employments, because such are naturally unwilling to continue in a business which offers them a mere subsistence, when their talents will enable them to succeed in more lucrative employments. The consequence is that a constant change is going on in the corps of teachers—and exchanges not for the better but for the worse. Experienced and able teachers leave the business as fast as they can, and their places must be filled by young and inexperienced, and of estimates incompetent persons who take up teaching because they can find nothing more profitable to do for the time. Those of them who have energy and ability sufficient to succeed and make good teachers soon get dissatisfied with the remuneration, and if they cannot procure permanent places in the schools of our larger cities which pay reasonable salaries, they leave the business, and betake themselves to something which affords a prospect of securing a permanent and sufficient means of support for themselves and their families, for life.

We have always regarded it as mistaken economy in School Committees to employ cheap teachers, for although the school money is thereby made to extend over more time—to give more schools in the year—the nevertheless affords the poorest kind of schooling, and is one of the greatest drawbacks to the cause of popular education. We do not altogether agree that "a little learning is a dangerous thing," but the people will, at all events have little enough wherever teachers are employed upon the principle of getting the greatest possible number of weeks schooling, out of the least possible amount of money. Better, to have shorter schools, with good teachers who have pay enough to make teaching a profession.

We propose, as we have space, to refer to and comment upon other facts and suggestions of the school report.

The Chicago Times says during the ninety two days comprising the last quarter of 1855, the almost incredible number of fourteen millions three hundred and sixty eight thousand newspapers and printed publications has passed through the postoffice in Chicago. The amount of postage on letters was $106,886 93. The number of letters on which that sum was paid exceeds three millions.

Communications from Constantinople say that the unfortunate Lady Ellenborough, whose romantic adventures are familiar to the public, was assassinated in Arabia by "the harem of an Arab sheik." The deed is supposed to have been committed at the suggestion of some women who were jealous of her ladyship.

Godey's Lady's Book for February comes early to hand. In illustrations it is one of the richest that has yet appeared—the engravings being of the most finished description. The ladies, we judge, will be in raptures with some of the embroidery and other splendid patterns which are given.

A bill introduced in the Kentucky Legislature provides that if any white person or free negro and a slave to escape, he shall, upon conviction, suffer death. Another bill introduced is designed to annul the law regulating the sale of spirituous liquors.

Washington Correspondence.

Washington, Jan. 16th, 1856.

Last night, when the announcement was made that the friends of Richardson would have a caucus, it was the general expectation that the plurality rule would be adopted to-day, and that, consequently, a Speaker would be chosen. But now, on the contrary, the caucus voted to stand by Richardson to the last. So to-day, when the plurality resolution was offered, it was tabled by four majority, rendering the prospect of an organization as distant as ever.

The stragglers, especially those who have a lofty opinion of their own qualifications for presiding officers, are coming and orces-gaining, voting continually with the opposition in everything except the direct vote for Speaker. They pretend to be good Anti-Nebraska men, but refuse to give a practical signification to their declarations. They must be remarked," as the Strait Whigs said of the Nebraska traitors.

"Why are the stragglers in the House like the Scribes and Pharisees?"

Because they would strain at a Nat, and swallow a Camel.

Bold Attempt at Robbery.—Last night, about 11 o'clock, the store of Messrs J M & R Hodgkins, on Exchange street, was entered by two Irish lads about 17 years of age, one named Patrick Kelly and the other ——Herrin. The boys broke through the glass in the front of the store, and when discovered they had piled broadcloths, stockings and many other goods near the window, ready for easy transportation. The attention of Mr Jeffords and Mr White, who were passing, was attracted by the broken glass, and Mr J guarded the premises, while the other started for the police. When the police arrived, they found that Mr Jeffords had secured the lads. They were taken to the Watch house, where they confessed to having two accomplices.

Edward O. Coburn and B Franklin Dalton. The trial of these two young men on an indictment charging them with the crime of manslaughter by causing the death of William Sumner is assigned for Thursday next, in the Municipal Court.

A Jam of Land Speculators.

We are obliged to Mr Joseph Brown for a copy of the Dubuque (Iowa) Gazette, containing the following letter from Decorah, the seat of the land office in the northern part of that State. The excitement is a great rush which took place on the 25th of December, at the opening of the office to secure favorite sections of land is truly comical.

Decorah, Dec 28, 1855

Editor Gazette:—As this is the centre of attraction, at present, in Northern Iowa, possibly a few items from here will be acceptable. For the last six months the land in this district has been overrun with persons making selections, and as a natural consequence, many have noted down the same numbers which caused many to come here early in order to secure their choice pieces. Quite a number of persons have been here for two months anxiously waiting the opening of the office, which was rumored would be the same day as to-day, finally authority came from Washington announcing the office would open on the 27th inst., which was published through the country, and persons soon began to congregate at this point. Decorah contains some 400 residents with but western accommodations for strangers. Saturday, the 22d inst., there had arrived about 600 applicants for land, and in order to shelter all, they were obliged to put them up several deep, every nook and corner in town was preempted, and then it was necessary to "sleep with one eye open, or some other comer would jump the claim."

At 11 o'clock, Sunday night, several persons began to gather about the office stairs so as to get a first chance when the office opened the next day, at 10 o'clock. At 4 o'clock Monday morning, the thermometer marked 30 degs below zero! But the crowd about the office continued to thicken, and by 8 o'clock it was almost impossible to pass the opposite side of the street. The Land Office is in the second story, and from the head of the stairs way out into the street it was a wedge, and so compact were the feet at the foot of the entrance, that many feet, fingers, ears and noses were frozen, owing to the total inability, on account of the pressure—of any one to move a muscle, or in any manner to relieve their frost bitten extremities; others, in the jam, were nearly suffocated, and when the outside pressure would surge up, they would gasper for breath like sick chickens. At 10 o'clock the outside door was opened, and then came the tug of war, such a scrambling for land has not been witnessed since the great flood when Noah's passengers were hunted, and high bluffs commanded a premium. The pressure was so great that the inside door was crushed in the first second, a couple of inches, the panning cracked, and for a moment consternation prevailed. When all were in that could be squeezed through, the outsiders, by persuasion of the bewildered officials, withdrew. The first days entry was limited to a quarter section to each applicant that got into the office, which hardly paid for battling against 30 degs below zero all night.

At 11 o'clock at P M a crowd took possession of the stairs, and remained there until 10 A M next day, and as it has been up to this time as best as chance who have kept the stairs all night are admitted, a new crowd take their places and remain until a late opening time to-day. The Register has but one clerk, and frequently but two, who slow only from 10 to 30 persons daily can be accommodated, and they being limited to one quarter sections.

The great bitter complaints and intensity of the cold made a strong impression on the multitude, but as just as soon as a location can be obtained it is preempted, and once in the county they must go through with it requires 18 to 24 hours to accomplish it.—Our indefatigable friend Geo. L. Nicholls, remained outside two nights—mercury 20 deg below zero—so as to get in the office to transact even a small amount of business for some of his numerous constituents. Many persons who laughed at and called idiots those who first stayed on the stairs, have themselves taken a night watch and secured a quarter section. There are no idlers in this place, for any one can get from $10 to $25 per night to take their station on the stairs, and make a quarter when they can get in. The various tailors, shoemakers, clerks, in fact every body within five miles who could be hired to take a stand at watch on the stairs, have been brought in by those who preferred paying for their services, instead of taking the cold themselves. So we go.

The Loss of the St Denis.—Andrew Rackliff of Bristol, Me., a seaman who was saved in the long boat, gives the following account of the loss of the St. Denis, which foundered at sea on the 6th:

"Saturday afternoon, we were well off from the land, and running about eight knots, a gale sprang up and we close-reefed topsails and reefed the courses and furled them. It turned in at 12 o'clock, and before daylight we were called up to furl the mizzentopsail. At this time the wind was blowing very heavily. We went down below, and soon after the maintopsail sheet was parted and we were called on deck to take it in. While on deck the foretopsail sheet parted and we were unable to take it in. Previous to this we were called out to lash the water casks that had broken loose from the lee side of the deck and were being dashed about the deck. The sea was breaking over the main deck and we were unable to secure them.—Myself and my watch were called on deck again about 1 o'clock on Sunday morning, and the mizzenmast had been cut away, and they were engaged cutting away the mainmast.

When the mainmast fell she carried away the foretopsail yard and spare topping lift, and stove the life boat and jolly boat, and damaged the long boat slightly, the mizzenmast stove the stern boat and the long boat was the only one left. The mate was injured about the head by the rigging when the mainmast was cut away. At daylight the gale and storm were terrific, the worst I ever experienced in twelve years, and every sea was breaking over us and sweeping everything before us. About 8 o'clock on Sunday morning the three cabin passengers were called up from the cabin and placed in the wheelhouse. The mate called all hands and ordered the long boat to be launched, which we did, myself, Petty and James Mulligan, went down and bailed her out while we were at work, a sea broke over the ship and filled the boat, and another man was sent over to assist us, Petty was called on to the ship to get something, and did not return again; shortly after Petty left we were hauling her along to the quarter to take off board provisions, when another sea broke over the ship and filled the long boat a second time, Joseph Levers, who was on deck, then cried out to the captain that the boat was swamped. The captain wrung his hands and said, as if speaking to himself, 'Our time is short.' Joseph Levers then asked us if we would take him in if he would jump overboard.—We told him to come on. He jumped over and swam about ten fathoms to us, and I pulled him in.

The captain and first and third mates came to the side of the ship, and the mates tried to persuade him to get into the small boat, but he refused and said it was foolishness to get into her as she could not live. The last I heard the captain say was, 'I have a wife and seven children in New York,' and then I saw tears in his eyes, and this was all the excitement I saw. All the men appeared very calm, and tried their best to save the ship from the first of it. The first mate then jumped overboard and swam to the boat, and we took him in. They then threw over a barrel of hard bread and a keg of water, but the water drifted out of our reach. The third mate then jumped overboard and was followed by five seamen, all of whom we took into our boat. The other seamen stood on deck and we tried to persuade more of them to come, but they would not. I had not seen the steerage passengers since the storm commenced, and heard the mate say he supposed they were drowned in their rooms before we left the ship. I did not see the cabin passengers come out of the wheelhouse.

At this time it was about 10 o'clock, and we paddled the boat off a little distance, so as not to be drawn into the whirlpool when the ship went down, which we were looking for every minute, as the whole bow of the ship was under water. We hove the boat head to and got a drogue out to keep her so, and then lay still, and three men were constantly bailing to keep our boat from sinking. We had not been in this position more than ten minutes when the ship went down head first, and the last we saw was the whole depth of the rudder. We were then between two hundred and three hundred yards from her, but could not hear any scream or noise, probably in consequence of the gale, which was very violent, but not so severe as it had been."

Life Packet Ship St Denis.—One of our oldest shipmasters, and who had previously sailed in the St Denis, informs us this morning that he is firm in his opinion that the vessel did not founder, although the statement made by those who were rescued in the boat seem almost impossible to throw any doubt but what the ship went down.

His opinion is, that the vessel between decks was of a light nature, the ship was strong and staunch and would float on the surface of the water for some time. We sincerely hope his opinion may prove true, and that the unfortunate people may still be rescued and restored to their friends.

He also says that the ship was not overloaded, drawing nineteen feet of water when she sailed, and was in as good condition as any vessel that ever left the port.—New York Commercial.

The War in Europe.—A Berlin correspondent of a London paper says that in that capital the hopes of peace have not been of long duration. As soon as the substance of the preliminaries sent by Austria to St Petersburg, became known, no one had any further faith in the possibility of their being accepted. No wonder, for it is now generally agreed, that it was proposed to Russia to sacrifice her protectorate over the Danubian Principalities, and to accept, without subjecting them to further deliberation, the conditions already determined on by the regulation of future collective protectorate on the part of the Allied Powers, the cession of that part of Bessarabia that lies round the mouths of the Danube was also demanded, and the neutralization of the Black Sea was explained as signifying that there are to be neither ships of war nor any naval arsenal in that quarter, but simply a few small vessels, sufficient to maintain order and protect navigation and commerce. It may with reason be asked, whether such proposals have any chance of being accepted at St Petersburg.

None of the London papers now have faith in the peace propositions. If any were entertained, the circular of Count Nesselrode, stigmatizing the third point, the neutralization of the Black Sea, with explanations and limitations which entirely destroy its force, effectually banished them.—Boston Journal

Terrors of the Arctic Winter.

Some of the episodes encountered during Dr. Kane's search, have wild interest. At one time it became necessary to send a fatigue party, with provisions, to assist the main party under Dr Kane, in an attempted passage across Smith's Sound. This party was under the command of Mr Brooke, first officer of the expedition. He was accompanied by Mr Wilson, and other volunteers. During their travel they found the ice completely impenetrable, and a snow drift had last swept within over the floes, and in the midst of a heavy gale from the north, the thermometer, to their dismay, sunk to 57 deg below zero.

Human nature could not support the terrible cold. Four of the party, including Mr Brooke and Mr Wilson, were prostrated with frozen feet, and with difficulty, three of four of their companions, after encountering great suffering, reached the ship, and announced the condition of their comrades. Their chances of being rescued seemed exceedingly small.

They were in the midst of a wilderness, incapable of motion, protected only by a canvas tent, and with no landmarks by which their position could be known. Even to drag these maimed men would have been under ordinary circumstances, a work of difficulty; but to the slender party left at the ship it seemed impossible. Dr Kane, with the boldness and courage which justified the warm attachment felt towards him by all under his command, in less than one hour organized a rescuing party, leaving on board only those who were necessary to relieve the sick, and started off in the teeth of a terrible gale, scorning by compass, to rescue the sufferers.

After nineteen hours constant travel, during which two of the party fainted, and others required to be kept from sleep by force, they struck the trail of the lost party, and finally, staggering under their burdens, one by one reached the tent, which was almost hidden by the snow.

The scene, as Dr Kane entered the tent, was affecting beyond description. The party burst out into tears. A rubber fire was immediately built, pemmican cooked, and the party ate for the first time after leaving the vessel. Ice was also melted, they having been to this time without drink. Worn out as they were, but four hours were allowed for the halt. The maimed of the frozen were sewed up in buffalo robes, placed on sledges, and dragged along by their companions, Dr Kane walking on advance, and picking the track. Cold of the utmost severity again overtook them. Bonsal and Morton, and even the Esquimaux boy, sunk upon the snow with sleep. It was only by force that they were aroused, and made to proceed, as the cold seemed to have destroyed all conception of danger. A large bear was met on their way, but was fortunately scared off by Dr Kane by the simple waving of his hand.

They reached the ship after a walk of sixty-two hours, still dragging their companions behind them, but insensible. Dr Hayes, the intelligent surgeon of the ship from whom are got the particulars of this fearful adventure, received the returning party. Two of the number died of their injuries, and two others underwent amputation, and are now restored to perfect health. The condition of those who dragged the sick was most lamentable. Their memory for a time was entirely gone, and the ship in the midst of muttering delirium, resembled a hospital. The surgeon and one remaining attendant, were in sole charge of the ship. In this state of semi madness the sick remained for two or three days, but afterwards they entirely recovered and the party under Dr Kane started three weeks afterwards and resumed their labors in the field.

I tropidly like this has never been surpassed. It is spoken of with emotion even now, by the stoutest hearts in the expedition.

If They Don't Run, Kiss 'em.—At Boulogne, during the reception of Queen Victoria, a number of English ladies, in their anxiety to see everything, pressed with such force against the soldiers, who were keeping the line, that the latter were in some instances obliged to give way, and generally were, to use the expression of our policemen, "impeded in the execution of their duty." The officer in command, seeing the state of affairs, shouted out—

"One roll of the drum, then, if they don't keep back, kiss them all!"

At the first sound of the parchment, the English ladies took to flight. "If they had been French," says a Parisian journalist, "they would have remained to a woman."

A Mammoth Icicle.—The St. Croix (Minnesota) Union says: "We saw an icicle, yesterday, down at McKusick's mill race, which was eighteen or twenty feet long, and in some parts between four and five feet in diameter. It was the king of icicles."

OXYGENATED BITTERS

The annexed Statement of Prof A A HAYES M D State Assayer, is a sample testimony of the scientific analysis to which the medicine is compounded and recommends it to Professional Men as worthy a fair trial in their practice.

An opinion having been asked for of me in consequence of the formula for preparing Oxygenated Bitters being known to me, I express the following opinion, to wit:

The composition of these Bitters includes those medicinal substances which experienced physicians have long resorted to for special acts in the system when deranged by Fevers, Dyspepsia, Ague, and General Debility resulting from exposure or climate influence.

These are preferred permanent in a medicinal state in this preparation as a consequence of the scientific manner in which they are combined.

It was a well found inference, that the preparation used in larger or smaller dose would serve as a valuable General Medicine, which experience has demonstrated.

In the medicine no metallic salts can be found by the most delicate chemical trial. A A HAYES M D,

Holloway's Ointment and Pills, the most celebrated Remedies for the Cure of Sore Arms. Samuel Wentworth of Norway, Maine, was for five years afflicted with sore arms. There were four different ulcers on them, and the raging nature of his business (a boatmaker) made him so much worse that despite of his wishes he was compelled to relinquish it. He tried various remedies and they failed to benefit him. However, about 13 weeks ago, at the recommendation of friends, he had recourse to Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which very soon made him better, and he called on Professor Holloway. In two weeks, since I saw him, his arms which were quite well, and with scarcely the scar perceptible.

Since the introduction of the Fluid Extracts of Buchu and Sarsaparilla, their reputation has been constantly increasing, and their popularity has extended in all directions. "Hope Never Dies."

A remarkable cure of Consumption has recently been effected by this medicine in the town of Chatham in this county, and which was related to us by Dr Hewick, an eminent physician of that town to whom we have permission to refer. A young lady, who had long labored under affection of the lungs, was considered by her friends as beyond the reach of medicine, and she was informed by her medical attendant that she must die. She was induced to send for a bottle of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, as a last resort. The young lady experienced great relief and two more bottles were successfully procured and administered. She is now happy in the restoration of health.

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.

The following is Mr. Boyce's resolution:—

Whereas, our relations with Great Britain are of the most threatening aspect, indicating that we may be upon the eve of the most startling events,—and whereas, it is the most imperative duty of the House, at the juncture of imminent peril, not to abdicate its great mission, but to fulfil it by organizing, if possible, upon such a basis as will give peace to our distracted country and enable it to present an undivided front to the common enemy. Therefore, resolved, that the conservative elements of this House should unite in a sincere effort to elect a Speaker who shall represent the great idea of peace for ourselves and the award for the stranger.

Mr Stephens hoped that the gentleman would be permitted to state the facts upon which he made the announcement that we are on the eve of a war. If it was so he knew nothing about it.

Objections were made to any explanations.

On motion of Mr. Morgan, the resolution was tabled.

Mr McMullen made an ineffectual effort to rescind the resolution prohibiting debate.

Mr. Tyson offered a resolution that the candidate for Speaker who shall at any time hereafter receive the highest number of votes from a quorum of members, though less than a majority of votes, be declared elected Speaker.

Tabled.

The House then proceeded to vote.

Banks 91; Richardson 67; Fuller 29; Campbell 3; Pennington, Shorter and Porter 1 each.

Two votes were taken, resulting the same.

Adjourned.

Arrival of the Black Warrior.

The British Periodicals.
PREMIUMS
TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.
L. SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:
THE LONDON QUARTERLY (Conservative.)
THE EDINBURG REVIEW (Whig.)
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church.)
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal.)
BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURG MAGAZINE (Tory.)
THE great and important events—Religious, Political, Military—now agitating the nations of the Old World, give to these publications an interest and value they never before possessed. They occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news, items, crude speculations, and flying rumors of the newspaper, and the ponderous Tomes of the historian, written long after the living interest in the facts he records shall have passed away. The progress of the War in the East occupies a large space in their pages. Every movement is closely criticised, whether of friend or foe, and all short comings fearlessly pointed out. The letters from the Crimea and the Baltic in Blackwood's Magazine, from two of the most popular contributors, give a more intelligible and reliable account of the movements of the belligerents than is elsewhere be found.
These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical,—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality and Religion, they stand as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.
EARLY COPIES.
The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British Publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, especially during the present existing state of European affairs, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.

KENNEDY'S

MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

The Greatest of the Age!

DR. KENNEDY of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures ALL KINDS OF HUMOR from the worst Scrofula down to a common pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases and never failed except in two He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value all within twenty miles of Boston

Two bottles are warranted to cure a malignant sore mouth

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face

Two to three bottles will cure the system of biles

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of erysipelas

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes,

Two bottles are warranted to cure running in the ears and blotches in the head

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ring worm

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism

Three to six bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum

Five to eight bottles will cure the very worst case of Scrofula

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle and a perfect cure warranted when the above quantity is taken

Nothing looks so miserable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day as that a cognition should grow upon the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system yet it is now a well tried fact If you have a humor it has to start. There are no ifs nor ands about it, nothing some cases but pay yours. He has published over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston, and knows the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts He gave it to children a year old to old people of sixty, and has seen young looking children whose flesh was soft and flabby restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle

To those who are subject to such headache one bottle will always cure it It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness; some who have taken it have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is bound it works quite easy but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear as from four days to a week—There is never a bad result from it—on the contrary when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person Hear it some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get and enough of it.

DOXBURY, Sept. 19, 1853

This is to certify that H H HAY, Druggist, Portland, is the duly AUTHORISED GENERAL AGENT for the sale of MEDICAL DISCOVERY for the STATE OF MAINE, and that he is supplied with the GENUINE direct from my Laboratory.
